

Your contact person:

Antonia Reihlen

- Born 25. May 1971 in Berlin
- 1991-96: Study of biology at the University of Cologne and the Technical University of Aachen
- 1997: Diploma thesis at the University Hospital of the Technical University of Aachen at the Institute for Hygiene and Environmental Medicine
- Internships in Bolivia and Bangladesh
- Since 1999 acting for Okopol
- Since 2003 associate of Okopol.

PO R T R A I T

M a i n f o c u s o f w o r k :

Environmental policy and communication:

Consulting of public authorities, enterprises and industry associations on the implementation of European environmental and chemicals legislation.

Environmental education and training:

Seminars, training and presentations for authorities and enterprises on issues of chemicals risk management and environmental management.

Company and municipal environmental management:

Consultation of companies in the field of chemicals risk management and controlling of material flows, integration of chemicals issues in environmental management systems.

Antonia Reihlen

Environmental policy and communication:

Techno-economic support to the proposed REACH legislation. Commissioned by: European Commission DG Env., Brussels, 2005 - 2007

RIP 3.8: Technical guidance document on fulfilling the requirements for articles. Commissioned by: DHI Water & Environment; in co-operation with: DTC, Umweltbundesamt Österreich, Umweltagentur Norwegen, Umweltagentur Dänemark, Chemikalieninspektorat Schweden and Umweltbundesamt Deutschland, 2005-2006

RIP 3.5-1: Technical guidance for downstream users, scoping study. Auftraggeber: Danish Toxicology Center Commissioned by: European Commission, DG Environment; in co-operation with: DHI, RPA, BRE und BEF Lettland, 2005

Technical assistance to the Commission on the GHS implementation. Commissioned by the European Commission, DG Environment, Brussels, 2003 - 2004

Pilot trial REACH: concept development, implementation and evaluation of a pilot trial on the draft proposal for a new EU chemicals regulation (REACH) Commissioned by: Ministry of the Environment, Nature Protection, Agriculture and Consumer Protection of North-Rhine Westfalia, 2003.

Environmental education and training:

Training programme for consultants located in the Baltic States on the new European chemicals policy (REACH) Sponsored by the German Federal Environmental Foundation, 2004 - 2005

Training seminars on the VOC solvent emission directive in Estonia and Lithuania Commissioned by: German Federal Environmental Agency, 2003.

Environmental management in companies and public institutions:

Branch and product related emission estimation tool for manufacturers, importers, and downstream users within the REACH-System.

Sub-project 02: technical guidelines for emission estimation: manual and software programme FKZ 204 67 456/02.

Commissioned by Ökoinstitut Freiburg, 2004 - 2005

Elaboration of solvent management plans according to the EU-VOC Solvent Directive in paint manufacturing, furniture producing and metal processing companies. Commissioned by German Federal Environmental Agency, 2001

Strategic consultation in the project "Baltic States Cooperation Project on chemicals control - Integrated chemicals risk management on company level" Commissioned by Environmental Ministries of Latvia, Lithuania and Estonia as well as Danish Environmental Protection Agency, 2000-2003.