

Your contact person:

Dr. Dieter Grossmann

- Born 22. Jul. 1955 in Hamburg
- 1975-83: Study of physics in Hamburg
- 1983-87: Lecturer at the University Hamburg
- 1987-90: Scientific employee at the faculty of physics of the University Hamburg
- 1990: PhD-thesis at the faculty of physics at the University Hamburg (Topic of PhD: Expertise on performance and limitations of element analysis with proton induced x-ray emissions)
- 1989: founding associate and since then employee of Okopol
- 1989-2002 executive director of Okopol.

PO R T R A I T

M a i n f o c u s o f w o r k :

Environmental management in companies and public institutions:

Prevention and disposal of wastes galvanic installations, ecological management, Eco-Audit, material flow analysis, evaluation of materials.

Regional and global flows of material:

Inter-plant networking of regional and global material flows.

Healthy and environmentally sound products:

Eco-balances, product life-cycle assessment and analysis of values of benefit.

Environmental education and training:

Methods of product evaluation, company related environmental protection, pressures on ecosystems and on the climate.

Dr. Dieter Grossmann

Environmental management in companies and public institutions:

Inhouse-training on company related environmental protection and the implementation of the Eco-Auditing Scheme in printing and publishing houses (commissioned by Axel Springer Verlag, since 1996)

Coordination of the set-up of an environmental management system at the University of Applied Sciences Lübeck which is certifiable according to EMAS (commissioned by University of Applied Sciences Lübeck, 2000-03)

Regional and global flows of material:

Management concepts for material flows of native-organic residues - chances and perspectives for Schleswig Holstein (commissioned by Ministry of Environment, Nature and Forests of the Land Schleswig-Holstein, 1999)

Analysis and regulation of regional material flows and energy flows: case study of the industrial area Henstedt-Ulzburg/Kaltenkirchen. Main report (November 1999), Implementation phase since July 2001 (commissioned by Ministry of Environment, Nature and Forests of the county Schleswig-Holstein, 1999-2002).

Healthy and environmentally sound products:

National co-operation ecological product assessment. Scientific consultation (commissioned by Hamburgischen Krankenhausgesellschaft, financed by German Environment Foundation, since 1999)

Sustainable procurement of office furniture - Manual and market survey (commissioned by German Federal Environmental Agency. Publisher: National association for environmental consulting, 1995).

Environmental education and training:

Concept development and seminar realisation on environmental management in enterprises (commissioned by Chamber of Handicraft Hamburg, since 1989).