

Your contact person:

Dr. Ingo Drachenberg

- Born 16. May. 1961 in Hamburg
 - 1983-86: Study of national economics at the University for Economics and Policy, Hamburg
 - 1986-92: Study of geography and soil sciences at the University Hamburg
 - 1992-97: Scientific employee at the Institute for Soil Sciences of the University Hamburg
 - 1997: PhD-thesis in the Faculty of Geological Sciences at the University Hamburg
 - 1998-99: Instructor for environmental education at the "Association for foreign countries" in North Rhine Westfalia
- Since 1999 acting for Ökopol.

PO R T R A I T

M a i n f o c u s o f w o r k :

Environmental education and training:

Concepts, realisation and facilitation of seminars, conferences and workshops; international educational work, lecturing in the scope of professional and political adult education.

Environmental management in companies and public institutions:

Facilitation of company internal discussion processes, Eco-Audit.

Regional and global flows of material:

Assessment of material flows in companies and on inter-plant level.

Environmental policy and communication:

Facilitation of environmental policy discussions in enterprises and public administrations.

Dr. Ingo Drachenberg

Environmental education and training:

Realisation of seminars on environmental topics (environmental management, integrated management etc.) in the scope of educational leaves, trainings for works councils and adult education for employees of administrations (commissioned by AQU-Team, Transbit a.o.)

Apprenticeship trainings in economics (commissioned by Chamber of Handicraft Hamburg, since 2002 and University of Co-operative Education Hamburg, since 2007)

Trainings for multipliers for environmental promoters in enterprises (commissioned by Axel-Springer-Verlag, 1999)

Environmental management:

Consultation of enterprises in the frame of ÖKOPROFIT and ÖKOPROFIT-Club in Hamburg (commissioned by Behörde für Stadtentwicklung und Umwelt Hamburg, 2004-2009)

Co-ordination of the implementation of an environmental management system at the University of Applied Sciences Lübeck which is certifiable according to EMAS (commissioned by University of Applied Sciences Lübeck, 2000-03)

Analysis of the implementation of an interplant environmental management system in course of the projekt: Analysis and regulation of regional material flows and energy flows: case study of the industrial area Henstedt-Ulzburg/Kaltenkirchen. Main report (November 1999), Implementation phase since July 2001 (commissioned by Ministry of Environment, Nature and Forests of the county Schleswig-Holstein, 2001-2003)

Consultation of the "working group ecology" in the scope of a re-evaluation of the enterprise according to the European Management and Audit Scheme (EMAS) (commissioned by Axel-Springer-Verlag, 2000).

Regional and global material flows:

Energy consultation small and medium-sized enterprises (commissioned by KfW, since 2008)

Assessment of the amounts of used oils in Germany (commissioned by Erich-Schmidt Verlag, 2008)

Environmental policy and communication:

Facilitation of workshops of the interministerial working group of the government of the state Schleswig-Holstein and the Ministry of Economy, Transport and Traffic of the state Schleswig-Holstein for the elaboration of a sustainable strategy (2000-2001).