

Your contact person:

Stephanie Schilling

- 13. Aug. 1973 born in Heidelberg
- 1994-96 Student of Spatial and Environmental Planning at the University of Kaiserslautern
- 1996-02 Student of Environmental Sciences at the Universities of Lüneburg and Rennes (France)
- Since 2002 employee of Ökopol.

PO R T R A I T

M a i n f o c u s o f w o r k :

Regional and global material flows:

Material flow management related to European Waste Law and (end-of life) vehicles.

Environmental policy and communication:

Support of environmental administrations in waste and (end-of life) vehicles related issues.

Healthy and environmentally sound products:

development of environmental criteria.

Stephanie Schilling

Regional and global material flows:

Study to the European Waste List (EWL) (commissioned by Austrian Environmental Ministry, 2005)

Material flow analysis and market survey for securing the disposal of waste oils (commissioned by German Federal Environmental Agency, 2004 – 2005)

Study on the definition of waste recovery and disposal options, (commissioned by European Commission, DG Environment, 2002)

Analysis of the risks of dangerous substances in vehicles, (commissioned by Belgian Federal Ministry of Public Health, Safety of the Food Chain and Environment 2004)

Rules on compliance with Article 7.2 of Directive 2000/53/EC (commissioned by European Commission, DG Environment, 2002).

Environmental policy and communication:

Presentation in front of members of the Egyptian Autofeeder Association within the scope of the Egyptian Business Institutional Support Partnership Program about the Environmental aspects of the EU market relating to their industry (commissioned by Association of European Chambers of Commerce and Industry (EUROCHAMBRES) and the Egyptian Industrial Modernisation Centre (IMC), Cairo 2005)

Service contract on the implementation of Decision 1753/2000/EC (commissioned by European Commission DG Environment, 2004)

Study to determine a set of relevant product related environmental criteria for vehicles and to inform the public about these environmental criteria (commissioned by Belgian Federal Ministry of Public Health, Safety of the Food Chain and Environment 2004)

Implementation of Directive in 2000/53/EC in Estonia (commissioned by German Federal Environmental Agency, 2002).

Healthy and environmentally sound products:

Feasibility study and market survey for (further) development of new and existing environmental labels (Blue Angel) for selected product groups (commissioned by Federal Environmental Agency, 2005-2006).